

2010 STN Convention Closing Awards Ceremony Student Presenters and Host Contest

Do you have what it takes to be an official STN Presenter? The STN Convention Closing Ceremony will be hosted by the best of the best on-camera student hosts selected from an affiliate school.

12 students will be selected to share the stage as we present the winners of the many STN contests. 2 will be chosen as the co-hosts and 10 will be presenters.

To audition for this coveted role, prepare a short video of yourself delivering the script on camera without a teleprompter. Rehearse your speech, capture it and upload it to the STN upload site.

Student Presenters and Co-Hosts Guidelines

- ✓ Three students from each school may apply. High School and Middle School students are eligible.
- ✓ Only one student from each school will be selected.
- ✓ Schools must be "members in good standing," meaning that their STN membership and account is current.
- ✓ Students must be attending the STN Convention in Anaheim, CA, March 3-6, 2010. STN will not assume the cost of any travel, registration, hotel, etc.
- ✓ All submissions must be uploaded to the STN upload site. They must be compressed to a file no larger than 100 mb. Please follow the instructions on the STN upload site.
- ✓ Entrants may not use a teleprompter. They should memorize the script or refer to a printed page, if necessary.
- ✓ Winners will be required to attend a meeting on Thursday, March 4 at the Disneyland Hotel and a rehearsal beginning at 7:00 am on Saturday, March 6. They will also be required to dress formally for the closing ceremony.

Student Presenters and Co-Hosts Judging Criteria

Students will be selected based on professional presentation, poise on camera, and the ability to deliver the copy with a natural, comfortable presentation.

Student Presenters and Co-Hosts Fees and Submissions

There is no fee for this contest.

Entries must be registered online and uploaded to the STN upload site by January 11, 2010 at 5:00 pm Pacific Time.

2010 STN Convention Closing Ceremony Student Presenters Audition Script

Good Morning STN! I'm [your name] from [your school name] in [your city and state].

I'm going to Anaheim to attend the STN Convention and I would love to be a presenter at the Closing Ceremony. I will study the script, follow directions, and bring enthusiasm and enunciation to my delivery. I will be confident, calm, cool and collected.

The reason you should select me as a presenter is [You write a close for your script.]
