The 7th annual STN Affiliate Convention returns to Anaheim California with outstanding training by professionals, dynamic national contests, and a number of opportunities for students and teachers to network with their peers and celebrate their passion for production.

As always, the theme is “Tell the Story,” and breakout sessions focus on the art of the story and the many techniques for telling it. This year’s sub-theme is “Making Magic” with several sessions concentrating on editing, sound, graphics and effects.

On Wednesday, March 3, students and teachers will participate in pre-convention training sessions and the popular Sweet 16 Broadcast Journalism and Movie Production Contests.

The show will open on March 4th with a welcome for students and teachers in the Grand Ballroom.

Thursday and Friday will feature Breakout Sessions covering a variety of topics for students and teachers. Students will also participate in 20 on-site contests.

Thursday night students will be treated to the STN CARNIVAL with the popular activity booths, games and photos. Friday night, all students will attend the Film Festival and Music Video Showcase.

On Saturday morning, The STN Convention Closing Ceremony is attended by 1300+ students and 200+ advisors from across the country. For more information, visit the website at studenttelevision.com and watch for continuous updates.
